Numb. 1421.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, November 2. 1706.

Edinburgh, October 26.

ON Wednesday last the 23d Instant, the Rabble (who are averse to the Union) got together; went to the House of Sir Patrick Johnston, our late Lord Provost, and one of the Representatives of this City, and offer'd to break open his Gates, but were prevented by the Magistrates, who sent some of the most active of them to Prison. This occasion'd a great Commotion in the City, whereupon the Privy Council met, and about 10 a Clock at Night the Foot Guards were order'd to take Post in 3 Places of the City. And the next Day the following Proclamation was publish'd.

Proclamation against Tumults and Rabbles.

ANNE by the Grace of GOD, Queen of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith: To Our Lyon King at Arms, and his Brethren Heraulds, Macers of Our Privy Council, Pursevants, Messengers at Arms, Our Sheriffs in that Part, conjunctly and severally, specially Constitut Greeting. Forasmuchas, notwithstanding that the raising of Tumultsbe a most dangerous, pernicious, and unboundable Practice, contrary to the very Being and Constitution of Government, and Destructive of the Chief Ends thereof, The Safety and Security of Mens Lives and Fortunes; and that by several Acts of Parliament, such as Ja. 1d. Par. 14. Cap. 77. and Ja. 4th, Par. 3d. Cap. 34. it is Statute that there be no Commotion, nor Rising of Commons in Burrows, in hindering of the Common Law; And that if any does in the contrary, and Knowledge or Tent may be gotten thereof; Their Goods be Confiscat to the King, and their Lives be at the King's Will: As also, by the Act of Parliament Ja. 6th, Par. 11. Cap. 11. it is Statute, That no Person within Burgh take upon hand, under whatsomever pretext, to convocat, without the Knowledge and Licence of the Magistrats, under the pain to be Punished in their Body and Goods, with all Rigour. As likeways, that the haill Inhabitants of the said Burgh readily Assist and concur with the Magistrats for Settling, and punishing the saids Tumults, under the pain of being Fosterers and Maintainers thereof. Likeas, by the Act of Parliament, Ja. 6th, Par. 17. Cap. 4th. it is Statute, that whatsoever Person Invades or Pursues any of his Highness Session, Secret Council, or any of his Highness Officiars: It being verified and Tryed, That they were pursued and Invaded for doing his Highness Service, shall be punished to the Death: There hath happened within these Few Days, and particularly on the Twenty Third Instant, and near to the Parliament-House, and in the Parliament Closs, even the Time of Sessing, and at the Rising of the High and Honourable Court of Parliament, where Our High Commissioner was present amongst them, Most Disorderly and insolent Convocations, and gathering of Commons filling the Streets with Clamour and Confusion, and Insulting, not only peaceable Persons, But also some of the Members of Our said High and Honourable Court of Parliament, presuming to Threaten and Invade them in their very Dwelling-Houses, by a most Villanous and outragious Mobb, which all Persons of Justice, Reason and Honour ought to Detest, and endeavour to Suppress, and prevent, in the Severest and strictest manner. Therefore, We in the Just Resentment of such High Indignities; And to prevent the Like in all Time coming, have thought fit, with Advice of the Lords of Our Privy Council, To Ordain the Magistrats of Edinburgh to continue their Diligence, and make strict Inquirie and Search, and to cause Apprehend all the Authors, Abettors, Accessaries, or Assistants of the aforesaids Convocations, Mobbs and Tumults, to the effect they may be brought to condign Punishment; Declaring for that End, That whosoever shall Discover any of the saids Authors, or Accessaries of the saids Tumults, shall not only be himself Indemnified, But have a due Reward for so good Service. And furder We with Advice aforesaid Ordain the Magistrats of Edinburgh, to call all the Deacons of Crafts, and Masters of their Incorporations, and all others their Householders and Inhabitants, and Oblige them for the Good Behaviour of their Apprentices, Servants and Domesticks, in such manner as the Laws and Customs of the Burgh do allow. As also, that they call the Regents, and Masters of the Colledge of Edinburgh, and enjoyn them strictly, that for hereafter they keep their Schollars in Good Order, and be careful of their Quiet and peaceable Behaviour: And We Ordain all the Inhabitants of the said Burgh, readily to Assist and concur with the Magistrats, for Repressing and Punishing all Tumults, under the foresaid pain of Law: And farder for preventing the like wicked Insolence in Time coming; We with Advice foresaid, hereby Declare, That in case and whenever any such Disorderly Convocation or Tumult shall appear, or begin to appear for hereafter; and that thereupon Intimation shall be made by the Magistrats, to all and sundry, to withdraw and retire to their respective Houses, Shops and Imployments; Whatever Apprentice, Servant, Journey-man, Foot-man, or any other Person, shall Disobey and be found upon the Streets, shall be reputed and held as Fosterers and Maintainers of the saids Tumults, and punished accordingly. And it is farder Ordered, that after such Intimation made to all Persons to retire to their Houses, and clear the Streets; Whoever shall be found thereafter Disobedient, and to continue upon the Streets, may be Attacked and Seized by the Town-Guard within the Town of Edinburgh, and also by such of Our Forces, as upon such Occasions have been, or shall be called for, and Ordered by Our Privy Council to March in, and be Assistant for the Suppressing and Dissipating of such Wicked Tumults and Disorders, and that with all manner of Force and by all such means as shall be Necessary for that Effect. And We with Advice foresaid, Do farder Declare, That if any Slaughter, Mutilation, Wounds, Blood or Bruises shall happen to be committed by the foresaids Guards, or any of Our Forces that shall be Ordered

Ordered for their Assistance, or by their Officers in obedience to these Our Orders, in the Suppressing and Dissipating of the saids Tumults, and clearing the Streets thereof: The Actors and Authors thereof, are hereby Declared to be Indemnified for ever; And We Discharge all Pursute Civil or Criminal to be intented against them on the foresaid Account in all Time coming, as having Acted and done nothing but what was their Duty, and necessary for the Protection of Our good Subjects, and preserving the Peace of the Place: And these Things We Ordain to be solemnly Declared and Published, that all may hear and Fear; And that all such Wicked and Villanous Disorders may be for hereafter prevented. OUR WILL IS HEREFORE, And We Charge you strictly, and Command, that incontinent this Our Letters seen, ye pass to the Mercat-Cross of Edinburgh, and other Places needful within this Our Ancient Kidgdom, and thereat in Our Name and Authority by open Proclamation, make publick Intimation hereof, that none may pretend Ignorance.

Given under Our Signet at Edinburgh, the Twenty fourth Day of October, and of Our Reign the Fifth Year, 1706. Per Actum Dominorum Secreti Concilii RO. FORBES, Cls. Sti. Concilii. GOD Save the QUEEN.

Edinburgh.

Minutes of Parliament, Friday October 25. Prayers said, Rolls call'd, Minutes of the last Sederunt Read. The Lord Chancellor represented to the Parliament, that he was directed by the Lords of Privy Council to acquaint the Parliament, that upon occasion of the Rabble that happen'd upon Wednesday Night last, by which several Members of Parliament were insulted, the Privy Council, for Security of the Parliament and Peace of the Town, had brought in a part of the Foot Guards, and had issued a Proclamation against such Tumultuary Meetings, whereof he was directed to acquaint the Parliament. Whereupon a Motion was made, that the Privy Council should have the Thanks of the House for their Care towards the safety and quiet of the Parliament, and that the House should recommend to my Lord High Commissioner and Privy Council to continue their Care thereof. Which Motion being read, after Discoursing thereon, it was moved that the Proclamation of Privy Council should be read, and the same being read, the Earl of Erroll protested, That the inbringing of the Foot Guards and their keeping of Guard within the Parliament Closs and Town, was in prejudice of his Right as High Constable who had the only right of keeping the Parliament House without Doors, and the Earl Marshal within Doors, and the Town of Edinburg's Rights by vertue of their Charters: Which Protestation being read was adhered to by the Earl Marshal and several other Members. And after some Debate upon the Motion a Vote was stated, approve or not, and it was objected that the Motion consisted of Two distinct Articles; the one approving what was done by the Privy Council and the other recommending to them to continue their Care. Whereupon the Vote was stated approve the Motion separately or joyntly, and was carried joyntly. And thereafter the Vote was stated approve or not, and was carried approve; reserving the Town of Edinburgh's Right by Virtue of their Charters. Then the Parliament was adjourned till Monday next at 10 of the Clock.

AT the Queen's Theatre in Dorset-Garden, London, this present Saturday being the 2d of November, will be reviv'd, a Comedy, call'd, The RELAPSE: Or, VIRTUE in DANGER: Mrs. Cross performing her Original Part of Miss Hayden. With Entertainments of Singing by Mr. Leveridge, Mr Ramondon, and others. And Dancing by Monsieur Cherrier, Miss Santlow his Scholar and Mrs. Evans, taught by Monsieur Sirit.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.
By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Saturday being the 2d of November, will be Reviv'd a Play, call'd, The Maids Tragedy. All the Parts being perform'd to the best Advantage. Particularly the King by Mr. Mills, Amintor by Mr. Wilks, Melantius by Mr. Betterton, Evadne by Mrs. Barry, Aspasia by Mrs. Bracegirdle.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

The Annual Feast of Stepney will be held at the King's-Head near the Church, on Thursday the 7th of this Instant November, Tickets may be had there. All Persons that have Apprentices put to them by the former Stewards are desir'd to send them to the said Feast.

This Day at Grigsby's Coffee-House in Threadneedle-street near the Royal Exchange, continues the Sale by Auction of a curious Collection of valuable Books, amongst which are Rushworth's Collections, 4 Vol. Le Bruyn's Voyages and Travels, Ben Johnson's and Shakespear's Works, Hackluyt's Voyages, Buck's Bible large Paper, &c. On Monday the Prints, &c. will be Sold.

Next Monday will be publish'd,

A Genealogical and Chronological Table of the Royal Line of England, from William the Conquerour to the Settlement of the Succession in the House of Hanover, 1701. Continued to the Year 1706, Inclusive: Curiously Engrav'd on Copper-Plates, and Printed upon Ten Sheets of Elephant-Paper, Pasted upon Cloath, with black Rollers, containing 8 Foot in Length and 4 Foot in Breadth; which is not only Ornamental, but very Useful, Instructive and Necessary to all that read the English History; for it represents at One View, all the Kings and Queens from William the Conquerour to this present Time, their Marriages into the several Families in England and other Parts of Europe, (which Families are distinguish'd by different sorts of Circles) the Children descended from those Marriages, the Years of their Births, Marriages and Deaths, as also the Years each respective King or Queen began to Reign, with an Explanation of the Whole: To which is added, the Effigies of the said Kings and Queens, finely Engrav'd from the best Original Paintings in England, as also their Coats of Arms and Great-Seals, with the several Devises upon them, their Inscriptions, Circumscriptions, and their Reverses. Printed for Sam. Gellibrand, and Sold by David Mortier at Erasmus's Head near the Fountain-Tavern in the Strand, London, 1706.

Newly publish'd,

A Map of the Country 20 Miles round Oxford, wherein is shewn all the Towns, Villages, Gentlemen's Houses, Castles, &c. also the Roads, Rivers, Woods Parks and Battles; as well as the Counties, Hundreds and Ecclesiastical Divisions: To which is added an Alphabetical Table of all the Towns, shewing their Place in the Map, their Market-days, Counties, Hundreds, &c. accurately perform'd after an actual Survey by Benj. Cole. Sold by Tim. Childe at the White Hart in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price 2 s. 6 d. Subscribers may receive it of Sam. Aldworth at the Dial over-against Exeter-Change in the Strand.

The first and most approved Angelick Tincture for Coughs, began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unmolested by Counterfeits. It is a great and stupendious Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail; when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after 2 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is no where to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Ally by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstin's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

Dr. Harborough's Pills, which perfectly cure all the Degrees and Indispositions in Venereal Persons by a most easie, safe, and expeditious Method; they also prevent the Disease if taken soon after the Danger fear'd: They Cure the Scurvey and Rheumatism, sweeten the Blood, and cleanse the Stomach and Bowels of all Impurities. They are dispos'd of at a Coffee-house over against the Doctors late Dwelling-house in great Knight-Rider-Street, near Doctor's Commons Back-gate, with Directions for their Use.

There will speedily be publish'd,

Anthropologia Nova; or, A new System of Anatomy, containing a new Animal Oeconomy, and a short Rationale of most Distempers incident to Human Bodies. (In which are inserted divers discoveries and observations, Anatomical and Chyrurgical, Illustrating the History of the Muscles, with Figures curiously Engraven after the Life, by Mr. William Cowper.) And to every Chapter a Syllabus of the Parts describ'd, for the Instruction of young Anatomists. By J. Drake, M. D. Fellow of the College of Physicians, and of the Royal Society. Printed for Sam. Smith and Benj. Walford at the Prince's-Arms in St. Paul's Church-yard, in 2 Volumns, 8vo.

On Monday was publish'd,

A Sermon Preach'd at the Guild-Hall Chappel, London, September 28. 1706. Being the Day of the Election of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor. By Francis Atterbury, D. D. Dean of Carlisle, and Chaplain in Ordinary to Her Majesty. Publish'd by Order of the Lord Mayor, and Court of Aldermen. Printed for Jonah Bowyer at the Rose in Ludgate-street, near the West End of St. Paul's Church.

Just Publish'd,

A Mechanical Account of the Non-Naturals: Being a Brief Explication of the Changes made in Humane Bodies, by Air, Diet, &c. Together with an Enquiry into the Nature and Use of Baths upon the same Principles. To which is prefix'd, the Doctrin of Animal Secretion in several Propositions. By Jer. Wainewright, M. D. Printed for Ralph Smith at the Bible under the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and Jeffery Wale at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard, 1707.

LONDON: Printed, and sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.